BIG COTTON DEAL PULLED OFF HERE

Makes Record Breaker in Cotton Transaction for the South.—Malone Cotton Co. Sold to Weil Bros, 8,000 Bales Yesterday.

COTTON MEN SAY BIGGEST DEAL IN COTTON KNOWN IN YEARS

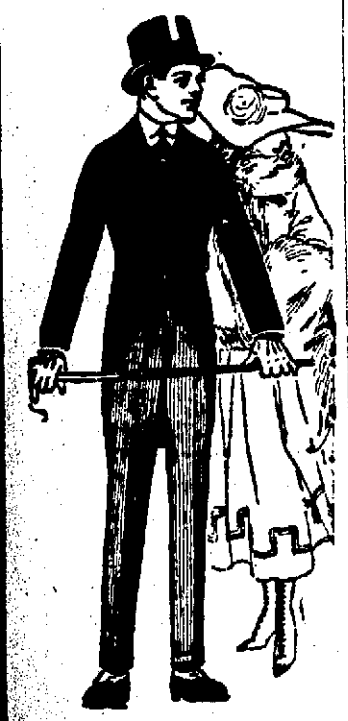

Yesterday Malone Cotton Company, of this city, sold to Weil Brothers, eight thousand bales of cotton in a lump. This, according to cotton buyers, is the biggest deal of the kind that has taken place in Alabama, and possibly the biggest in the South in recent years, where an individual concern sold to another this amount of cotton. The deal represents something like $500,000.

Much of this cotton was carried over from last season, but the greater portion of it was bought this season.

This is probably one-third of the crop that will be made in Houston county this year, as the crop is much shorter than it has been in former years.

NEW ENTERPRISE FOR GENEVA COUNTY

Messrs. G. S. Kelly of Slocomb, and Ed Watford of Madrid, will in the near future visit several points in Mississippi to investigate the peanut oil proposition. In this state several cotton seed oil mills have of late taken up the work of extracting peanut meal cake. In view of the fact that the boll weevil has permanently reduced the output of cotton seed in this section, it is very apparent that a market must be provided for the products that can be grown here. J. M. Pilcher, who is interested in one of the three cotton gins in Slocomb, states that beyond all doubt his gin will be transformed into a feed manufacturing concern in the near future and possibly the peanut oil idea will be followed up if it looks good to the prospectors. This is an enterprise which will be of great benefit to the farmers of Geneva county, and it is to be hoped these enterprising Slocomb people will carry it to a finality.—Geneva Reaper.

NEGRO STOPS LOAD OF SHOT

In a difficulty that took place near Ashford yesterday morning, David Shackleford, negro, shot and wounded another negro in the back. The weapon used was a shot gun.

Deputies Alex and Talmadge May went to Ashford last night to make an investigation, but found that the negro charged with the shooting had gone. The particulars were not learned. The negro was wounded seriously but it is not thought fatally.

BOLL WEEVIL DISPERSION.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The unusual storms of August and the very rapid multiplication of the boll weevil in Texas have resulted in a tremendous movement into northwestern Texas and Oklahoma. This movement is probably not yet completed, nor has it been entirely mapped out. The indications are that half of the State of Oklahoma is now (Oct. 16) infested. Information has just been received that the boll weevil is at Vernon in Wilbarger county, Texas, and at Cache in Comanche county and Mineo in the extreme northern part of Grady county, Oklahoma. Unless immediate measures are taken by the planters throughout Oklahoma and northwestern Texas it can be expected that the boll weevil will do some damage next year.

The Bureau of Entomology advises that the planters throughout Oklahoma and the supposedly infested sections of Texas begin immediately to pick their cotton and destroy the plants. By destroying the plants the developing weevils will be killed. Two methods of destruction are available. If the plants can be plowed under to 4 or 5 inches this is the most desirable method of procedure, otherwise they should be stacked in windrows and burned as soon as dry.

After destroying the plants preparation should be made for a winter cover crop and for a rotation of crops next year.

The weevil has maintained its position in Arkansas and has probably extended its area a little farther north in the western portions. The entire State of Mississippi is infested, and the weevil is now known to be in McNairy and Hardin counties, Tenn. Tennessee planters along the entire southern border should take the same precautions that have been recommended to Oklahoma planters.

Probably only four or five counties in the mountainous sections of northeastern Alabama will escape infestation by the boll weevil this year. Over thirty counties in western Georgia are already known to be infested and there is no doubt but what five more will be recorded soon. Planters in Georgia and Alabama whether in infested counties or not, should take immediate measures to destroy the cotton stalks and prepare the fields for winter cover crops.

J. L. Collins, of Ardilla, was in Dothan today for a while.

She Wasn't that Kind of a Girl.

A young college student, full of new wisdom, was discussing a topic with a maid recently arrived in his home, relates Judge.

"I held your attitude once," said the student after a short pause.

"My attitude!" exclaimed the maid, and drawing herself up to her full height, indignantly added, "You did not!"

The Lion's Dinner.

A very stout lady at the Zoological Gardens was seeing the lions fed for the first time, and was rather surprised by the limited amount of meat that was given them, says the New York Evening Post.

"That seems to me to be a very small piece of meat for the lion," she said to the attendant.

The man looked at the good lady's more than ample girth with a judicially appraising eye.

"It may seem a small piece indeed, to you, mum," he said, "but it's heaps for the lion."

CANDLER HERE OCTOBER 20

Will Inspect Atlanta and St. Andrews Bay Railway Company.

Asa G. Candler, of Atlanta, president of the Atlanta & St. Andrews Bay Railway will be in Dothan, October 20, for the purpose of inspecting the road.

Mr. Candler will first come to Dothan, stop here a short while and will then make the trip down the railroad to Panama City, Fla., to look over the property and observe conditions generally.

It has been suggested that if Mr. Candler would make his trip five days later, reaching Dothan, October 25, that he would have an opportunity of taking in the Dothan Fair and ascertaining some of the possibilities of this section.

Initiatory Work.

One of the first accomplishments of the railway under its new management, was the success of R. A. McTyer, vice president of the company, who had a steamship service established between Panama City, Fla., and New Orleans. This line hauls much Dothan freight.

It is not known whether there is any particular significance to the contemplated tour of Mr. Candler, October 20.

BERRY DOING WELL

Charlie Berry, who was injured in an automobile accident, is reported doing nicely at his home today. Dr. S. O. Carlisle and Dr. Henry Green were among the first to reach the scene, and Dr. Green came back to town after Dr. T. M. Barnett, the family physician, who took charge of the case.

3 QUARTS OF BOOZE FOUND

Nathan Anderson, negro, who lives on North Lena street, was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriffs Ross Hornsby and Alex May on a charge of violating the prohibition laws, and locked in the county jail.

The officers say they found over three quarts of whiskey in the negro's house.

CANDY FOR WARRIORS.

From the Westminster Gazette.

The value of candy is recognised by military authorities. The British soldiers in France are reported as consuming "prodigious quantities of sweets." A captain at the front with the British army reports that the canteen has five times the demand for sweets that was expected, and one-fifth the demand for beer." The Australians encamped in Egypt have eaten all the chocolate to be had in Cairo.

Scientists contend that sugar has much food value and is a good substitute for alcohol. Chocolate, for example, is harmlessly stimulating. Soldiers have discovered what scientists knew before, that sugar will relieve fatigue quickly and give a sense of strength that is real without the subsequent depression experienced by those who use spirits. Sugar and candies are found to be useful not only to the physically tired, but to those who suffer mental exhaustion.

She Will Recover

So her doctor said. Her friends and neighbors felt sure of it too. They have used Peruna themselves and know of its merits. That old cough that had worried her for years and years, for which she had taken all sorts of cough medicines, has disappeared. Peruna is doing the work. She will recover. Indeed, she has recovered.

Her name is Mrs. William Holeman, 2764 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ills. She had suffered with catarrh of the bronchial tubes and had a terrible cough ever since a child. As she got older she grew worse. She coughed both winter and summer. Had to sit up at night. Could not sleep. "But all that has left me now. Peruna has cured me."

There are others, and there is a reason.

THE PRICE OF COTTON SEED

If cotton seed are selling at $50 a ton, as reported in Montgomery what do you suppose the cotton seed oil mills made last year when they bought the bulk of the seed for $12 and $15 a ton?

Through this section, this paper tried to save the farmers two or three hundred thousand dollars by urging them not to sell their seed for such a price. And, many of them didn't; they saved them until later and took $30 a ton. This season, when the new seed began to come in, they were paying $14 or $15 a ton, and they have gone steadily up ever since. Last season, the mills claimed that they couldn't make money at $30 a ton, and if that's so, do you suppose they are losing now?

The point is, the farmer shouldn't become alarmed when seed are low. They keep remarkably well, and when the mills see they cannot get enough seed to run on at $30 a ton, it seems that they will pay more. Then there is no use to take half that price.

COUZEN'S WRATH.

Jim Couzen's, a coal salesman, thirteen years, took $400 he had, borrowed $100 from a sister, and $500 from a friend, and he put that into the Ford motor business with Henry Ford. The other day he got mad at something Ford said about preparedness, and quit the company and is going to sell his stock. The company was recently reorganized at $100,000,000, and he owns one-tenth of it, and probably the stock is worth ten to one. If Ford had the idea then that made himself and Couzens rich, it may be that Ford's idea now about being prepared for war is a good one, and it shouldn't make Mr. Couzens so mad.

We know of two or three fellows down here in Dothan, who, if they could link up with a proposition like Couzens had, and made ten to fifty million in thirteen years, they wouldn't care what sort of ideas the boss had about universal peace, or any other question.

FIGHT SUMMER PESTS NOW.

Savannah News.

Just as we have banished mosquitoes for many months from our thoughts and settled down to the pleasantness of autumn and winter, no less an authority than Dr. Woods Hutchinson prods us out of our complacent belief that dangers are over and urges us once more to be up and doing. For, according to Dr. Hutchinson, the October mosquito and likewise the October fly, instead of being the innocuous creatures one might suppose, are the deadliest of enemies, seeking a place to hibernate like Caesar's armies and intending, through the eggs they will deposit with the first days of spring, to buzz forth a myriad strong when summer comes.

These impertinent little creatures, not satisfied with having harassed our lives all through the summer are now deliberately preparing to secrete themselves in convenient places in and around the house, where they may find shelter from the winter cold, and every mosquito and every fly seen at this season may be regarded as a personal enemy whom it is our duty to exterminate forthwith and without mercy.

If it were possible to completely exterminate the whole band of mosquitoes and flies now in existence in a single community, to wipe them out so completely that not even one would be left, that community, we are assured, would next summer be "flyless, buzzless, stingless." But the breeding mosquito and fly are dark and devious and the ordinary man is no match for them. The best one can do is to make a beginning. Screens should remain up through November, if not all winter in this climate, and the kitchen screen door, thru which attractive odors float to tweak the nostrils of the fly, should never come off except to put on a new one. At least once a week until winter sets in, a devastating trail from garret to cellar, fly-swatter in hand, should be followed so that not the least of little things which may eventually multiply into millions may escape. The fly-swatter in every room in the house is a timely help to the impulse that sometimes slips off in mere emotion, through lack of a handy instrument for the killing.

Having been occupied in such kindly ways as these during most of the summer, and having pinned our faith to the efficacy of the kerosene can, it is a little hard that winter brings no rest. But a sense of responsibility towards society is the most striking characteristic of the times. Having learned a new truth the kerosene can will no longer satisfy us, and with all the energy and devotion we have hitherto applied to it, we will work in the new way towards the new ideal of a mosquitoless and flyless summer.

"Chilvelry has been aptly defined as the flower of feudalism," remarks the Luverne Journal. Oughta take quinine for that kind.

"Oh well let him marry, the nation needs a mother," says the Luverne Journal.—But may not want a stepmother.

Mr. Bryan is quoted as saying that his plans for the remainder of his life "include participation in politics, but do not include the holding of any office." Of course running for an office is an equine of a different shade.

CAN AFFORD TO DISAGREE NOW.

Mr. Couzens, vice president and general manager for Henry Ford has resigned because he could not agree with Ford about some of the public utterances with reference to preparedness for war. Well, since Mr. Couzens has hung around the Ford running board long enough to become rich, by his association with the head of the Ford company, it is but natural that he have ideas of his own—now.

A Bargain.

"Look here," said the head of the firm, addressing the new stenographer, according to the New York Sun, "this letter is all wrong. Your punctuation is very bad and your spelling is worse. I can't afford to send out any such stuff to my clients."

"Well," she replied. "I'm sorry if my work don't suit you, but was you expecting to get a Mrs. Noah H. Webster for thirteen dollars a week?"

"All Cats look grey—at Night!"

"JUST Rubber and Canvas—pumped full of air!"

So thinks the Tire User who buys Pneumatics "Blind," without comparison after thorough investigation.

So thinks the Car Owner who buys from the Cut-Price Dealer, the "just as good!" Tire on which that Dealer quotes him the biggest discount off a Price List specially printed up for that purpose.

So thinks the Man whose Tire bill averages nearly half of his entire Season's running Expense, when it need not average one-fourth, if he would only "Work his head" and, once for all, learn the Tire Game.

THERE are Car Owners who regularly get 25% to 50% MORE Mileage, per Dollar invested in Tires, than do the Owners of other Cars driven with equal care, under equivalent road conditions.

The latter type of Owner is apt to conclude offhand (from his own experience) that all Tires must be Short-lived and Unsatisfactory.

Now this is to tell him that there is as much difference between the Mileage and Resilience of different brands of Tires, when the facts are investigated, and proven through actual Service, as there is difference between the Color of Cats—when viewed by Daylight.

This is to inform him that three Rubber Factories using precisely the same quantity and quality of Materials might, and sometimes do, produce (through the difference in their Rubber EXPERIENCE and efficiency methods) Tires of such widely different Mileage-Result as to average 3000 Miles, 4000 Miles, and 5000 Miles respectively—under parallel road conditions.

COST of production is therefore no sure guide to the Mileage and Resilience which can be put into such a subtle and "temperamental" product as the Rubber in a Pneumatic Tire.

And, though The B. F. Goodrich Co. can, and does, put the most Mileage per Dollar invested by the User, into Goodrich Safety-Tread Tires, they do not interpret this as a reason why they should charge a higher price, to include an Insurance Premium which would place their "Adjustment Basis" beyond the safe and reasonable minimum that Bad Roads and Careless Driving make necessary.

Because of its Manufacturing Advantages, its Precision Methods, and Waste-reducing Processes (resulting from its 45 years' EXPERIENCE in the working of Rubber), The B. F. Goodrich Co. can afford to and does, offer the greatest Mileage in Tires at the lowest price per Mile.

It sells the standard grade of Goodrich Safety Tires at 10% to 30% lower prices than other non-skid brands which "Guarantee" greater Mileage but cannot prove delivery of greater Mileage in actual use.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY.

I fill this cup to one made up
Of loveliness alone
A woman, of her gentle sex
The seeming paragon;
To whom the better elements
And kindly stars have given
A form so fair, that like the air,
'Tis less of earth than heaven.
—Edward Coate Pinkney.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison Brewer announce the birth of a son, William Harrison Brewer, Jr., October 10.

Mrs. William Harrison Brewer has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Henry Haines Green of Atlanta.

Women in the News—

New Orleans—Mrs. Genevieve Champ Clark Thompson, daughter of Speaker Clark of the house of representatives, is a busy woman, even during her honeymoon days. She is chairman of the executive committee of the Woman's National Made in U. S. A. League, and has consented to serve as state chairman of the league in Louisiana. Among her co-workers are Mrs. Luther F. Hall, wife of the governor, and Mrs. W. W. Wallis, state regent of the D. A. R. Louisiana women will aid her in gathering a collection of things grown, made and produced in this state, for the big national exposition to be held in Washington in January.

Worcester, Mass.—To handle the postal business of a city of 150,000 people requires extreme confidence and approval of the highest authorities at Washington. That honor has fallen to Miss Helen A. McCarthy, assistant postmistress, who has been acting postmaster during the past two weeks. Cards displayed in all the postal stations of the city announced that she had full authority over the many offices and their hundreds of employees.

Markets

New York, Oct. 16.—Spot people and local professionals sold the market off to 65 for January, but Mitchell, who also had been a seller, came in as a large buyer of January and July in the last half-hour and rallied it over 79. Sentiment locally is revolutionary and the disposition was to go short on the theory that the speculative buying power had about exhausted itself for the present. Liverpool reported the South offering more freely but crop news continued bullish particularly from Oklahoma.

Modes of the Moment
FOR MORNING, AFTERNOON & EVENING

The writer was in New York when the buyers came back from their last European trip for this season.

All information reaching us since our return confirm our conception of the Fall and Winter 1915 Modes.

We receive from different New York style news organizations weekly, semi-weekly, tri-weekly and daily information.

No store outside of New York city has more authoritative style news reaching it than that received by our store.

The proper environmet and a life-long experience has taught us how to choose the correct Modes from the mediocre

Since the beginning of the European war, somber colors have been in vogue thruout Europe. Our country has reflected it's neutrality by the adoption of neutral colors. The following colors in the order named will prevail thru the season:

Navy Blue, Dark Brown, Dark Green and Concord, which is a dull shade of Purple. Much black will be worn.

The Coat Suit materials will be Velours, Duvetyne, Broadcloth, Whipcord, Gabardine, Serge and Poplin.

The jackets to Coat Suits will be from hip length to knee length, with the average between these prevailing; they will have choker collars, but the smart dresser will occasionally wear her coat partly buttoned, revealing a bewitching blouse.

The skirts will be short, sometimes circular and flaring, then again pleated styles, often made with yokes.

Fancy blouses are again in vogue and the prettiest shown in several seasons.

The dress materials are Serge, split Gabardine and Poplin in woolens and in silks, satin faced silks, Fleur de Soi, Taffeta and Crepe de Chine.

Many poufs and tunics are worn. The Marie Antoinette age furnishes most of the style ideas of the season, for evening dress. They are made of rainbow and transparent net, plain and pompadour taffeta charmeuse, many times combined with beautiful lace.

The trimmings are fur and silver embroidery. All dancing dresses are short. Most everybody remarks on the wonderful values we are offering this season in this department. Dresses $6.50 up. Suits $15 up

MILLINERY MODES

Mrs. Pollard is more than meeting the expectations of our patrons & friends. She has always been a "big town" trimmer, Dothan being the smallest town she has ever gone to, but we believe nothing is too good for Dothan.

So far she has trimmed no two hats alike. You can find your hat at Boy & Williams best. All of our millinery is most reasonable in price.

"AS YE WOULD."

If I should see
A brother languishing in sore distress,
And I should turn and leave him comfortless,
When I might be
A messenger of hope and happiness—
How could I ask to have what I denied
In my own hour of bitterness supplied?

If I might share
A brother's load along the dusty way
And I should turn and walk along that day,
How could I dare
When in the evening watch I knelt to pray,
To ask for help to bear my pain and loss,
If I had heeded not my brother's cross?

If I might sing
A little song to cheer a fainting heart,
And I should seal my lip and sit apart
When I might bring
A bit of sunshine for life's ache and smart—
How could I hope to have my grief received,
If I kept silent when my brother grieved?

And so I know
That day is lost wherein I fail to lend
A helping hand to some wayfaring friend
But if it show
A burden lightening by the cheer I sent,
Then do I hold the golden hours well spent,
And lay me down to sleep in sweet content.

Study Club Meeting—

The Study Club held their regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock with Mrs. L. G. Y. Baker.

The meeting was presided over by the President, Mrs. Ernest Ford. Several business matters were discussed. Mrs. Ed Hawkins was elected a member of the club, to fill a recent vacancy.

After the following interesting program, the guests were invited into the dining room where tempting sandwiches, and tea were served.

The dining room was very attractive in baskets of coral vine, placed here and there. A large rustic basket of this beautiful vine, forming the centerpiece on the dining table.

Mrs. Baker was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ed Harmon and Mrs. Ernest Bussey.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

Surprise for Pat.

At a circus recently a lion died, says the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph. The manager, seeing his friend Pat walking along the street mentioned it to him, whereupon Pat offered to take the place of the lion and dress in the latter's skin. A trial performance was gone through and Pat answered admirably, his "roaring" being most lifelike.

When the circus opened Pat was seen in the lion's den, the keeper, with a pitchfork keeping him up to "concert" form. The climax was reached when the keeper drove Pat into the tiger's cage. Pat was now extremely frightened and rushed around the cage to escape the infuriated tiger. He was about to collapse when a hoarse whisper came from the mouth of the pursuing tiger:

"'Tis all right, Pat, me boy; don't be afraid. I only came here on the excursion and was too late for the train to get home to Waterford."

Father Followed

The conversation at a recent dinner turned to the subject of romantic marriages, when this little anecdote was volunteered by H. M. Aaeker, a North Dakota politician, according to the Philadelphia Telegraph.

One afternoon Brown was standing on the corner looking at the jitneys when he was suddenly confronted by an acquaintance of other years. Soon they were comparing notes and recalling happy hours.

"So you were married ten years ago," said the acquaintance in response to a statement made by Brown. "Took place in the church, I suppose, with bridesmaids, flowers, cake and the brass band."

"An elopement, eh?" returned the acquaintance. "Did the girl's father follow you?"

"Yes," answered Brown with something akin to a sigh, "and he has been with us ever since."
